Tony writes:

Dear friends,

There seems to be a lot of suffering in the world at the moment. When we see the suffering of innocent people in Gaza and the Ukraine, we are perhaps among the many who ask, "Where is God in all this?"

There are no glib answers, but for me, I have to keep coming back to the cry of Jesus on the cross on that first Good Friday:

"My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

It is a cry which is echoed again and again by people in the face of pain and suffering, either their own or that of their loved ones: "Why God? Where are you? Why have you forsaken us?" Jesus, on the cross, invites us to believe in a God who suffers with us and for us, rather than a God who is distant and removed from our situation. We are not like pieces on a chessboard being moved about in some crazy game by an unfeeling God, but rather God is with us and suffers with us. Can we believe that? Can we believe that our tears are God's tears, our pains are God's pains, just as our joys are God's joys also? Isn't that the truth which Jesus shows us? Isn't that something of what the cross is all about?

Every year in Holy Week and Easter we celebrate the drama of a God who goes with us the whole way. Jesus shows us the truth of "God with us." He reveals a God who weeps at his friend Lazarus' tomb, who shares our loneliness and fears in Gethsemane, who is taunted and despised and spat upon, who is abused and tortured and faces a horrific death. Jesus shows us a God who goes the whole way, right into the jaws of death and who holds out the Easter promise of new and eternal life in his presence. Suffering and death will not have the last say.

The joy of Easter comes from the knowledge that God is with us and life will prevail. God journeys with us and shares all that life may throw in our direction and we are one with God, sharing the blessings of life which come from living in God's presence. God comes with us to the tomb and opens the door to eternity. He is there at the daybreak and the evening of our lives. He is also the sunrise and the morning of a new day.

May you know that God is with you this Easter and always.

Lent Meetings A big thank you to everyone who supported the Lent Meetings this year at Aston. Having over 20 people each week was splendid and made it all very worthwhile. I hope everyone enjoyed it as much as I did. Tony

The winning numbers in the draw for March were: -

1st – 185 (Weston), 2nd – 43 (Swarkestone), 3rd – 131 (Weston).

Facebook. Growing numbers of people are now joining our Public Groups on Facebook for All Saints' (179 members) and for the Trent and Derwent Benefice (87 members). Swarkestone (218 followers), Barrow (434 followers), Elvaston (156 followers) and the Friends of St.Mary's, Weston (133 followers) also have their own Facebook pages. They are a very convenient way of keeping in touch and of letting everyone know what is happening around the Benefice. If you are not on Facebook or are unfamiliar with or are not used to social media, do contact Tony for advice, if you would like to be able to access the church Facebook groups.

On Line Services We are continuing to record services in advance and post them on-line on both the Aston and the Benefice websites. You just need to go to the page entitled "Online worship and prayer." They are also available via the Facebook groups and, if you let me know you would like to receive it, a link can be sent to your email address too.

Tony's Retirement – some dates for the diary:

Aston on Trent Women's Institute.

Our Soup and Pud Lunch raised over £600 for Aquabox our 2024 charity. We were very busy and only had a mix of scrapings for our lunch, at the end of service, which tasted wonderful knowing that it was a successful event. Thank you.

The next Coffee & Chat will be on 23rd April (St George's Day), when alongside our usual treats we will be selling wool at a very reduced price.

As it's our 95th year we have decided to subsidise the annual subscription, so it will only be £40 for 12 months. This is due by the May AGM meeting. If you have any ideas for trips or speakers, please let us know.

At our meetings we have several collection boxes at the back of the hall, one for the food bank and another for toiletries for our well dressing stall. These donations are always welcome but please ensure that they are in date.

Dates for your diary: -

Tuesday 23rd April 10:30- 1200: Coffee & Chat in The Heritage Centre.

Thursday 25th April: D.F.W.I. County Quiz

Wednesday 1st May: Allo' Allo! At The Duchess Theatre Long Eaton.

Tuesday 14th May 7:30pm: AGM and 2024/25 subs due.

Tuesday 25th June 10:30- 1200: Coffee & Chat in The Heritage Centre.

Tuesday 13th August 2:00- 4:00pm: Garden Party at a beautiful garden venue TBC.

Saturday 3rd August: Nottingham River cruise with afternoon tea.

6th – 8th September: WI Holiday to Bristol.

Saturday 5th October: Aston on Trent 95th Birthday Lunch at Morley Hayes.

26th - 27th November 2024: Thursford Christmas Spectacular.

We meet at the Memorial Hall on the second Tuesday of each month at 7:30PM. New members and guests are always welcome and it's free for your first 3 meetings. Our members Craft and Dabble meetings are the 2nd and 4th Thursdays in the month in the Heritage Centre.

Aston and Weston Mother's Union

This Lent, All Saints' has had a very good series of Wednesday evening talks. Tony has discussed basic aspects of the Christian faith going back to its origins in the Old Testament and then important leaders and writers in the New Testament. We discussed the institution of the Anglican Church from the Archbishops to the local Clergy and Readers and we also considered the different denominations which contribute towards making our Christian faith what it is today. It was good to see a group of MU members attending regularly.

There is a committee meeting on Friday April 12th so if anyone has any ideas or comments to make which need to be discussed, please tell a committee member.

After Easter, for our April meeting, we look forward to hearing Mrs. Evadne Robbins talking about "Organs and Miscellaneous Memories", subjects close to her heart. The talk is on Thursday, 25th April and if any visitors would like to come and hear what Evadne is going to say you will be very welcome. It starts at 2.30pm and it's in the Heritage Centre, in the churchyard.

This will be our last opportunity to give our donations to Tony to use on his visit to Kenya. He has always appreciated the money raised by our MU for the needs of the Kenyan schoolchildren he helps, so please give generously if you can, for this good cause.

Date for your Diary.

May 7th is the date of the Mothers' Union Deanery Festival service. This will be held at Melbourne Church at 2pm and be led by Bishop Malcolm. Emily our President is hoping to be there. This is our opportunity to meet up with other MU members from local parishes and we will try to arrange

CAMEO

Our March meeting was a huge success.

Fiona Stevens, Colour Consultant, gave us a demonstration of how you can lighten your day by wearing colourful clothes and for us ladies to wear a little bit of lipstick. This can complement your skin tone and the colour of your eyes.

It's getting closer to Spring and the daffodils are beginning to grow everywhere. The poet, William Wordsworth explained it all. A small quote:

"Daffodils are fluttering and dancing in the breeze"

Our next meeting 3rd April at 7.30pm is after Easter but we will be having a Craft session.

All are welcome to come and join us in the Heritage Centre Aston-on-Trent DE72 2DH.

WHEN YOU SEE...

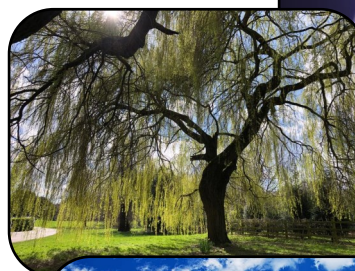

When you see a lovely rainbow in the sky,
Colourfully light the storm clouds way up high;
Know it's the promised sign from God to man,
That floods will never again cover all the land.

When you see a star twinkle in the night,
Be assured that all is well and right;
As the son of God was born on earth;
In a lowly stable, where a virgin gave birth.

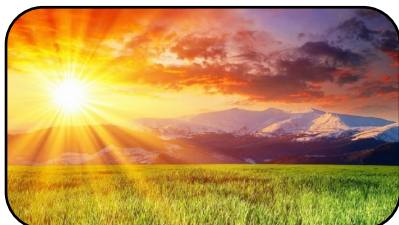

When you see the wood of a mighty tree,
Remember that cross at Calvary;
Where an innocent man was crucified,
Rising again to prove no one has truly died.

When you see a lovely snowy white dove,
Feel the loving peace of God from above;
By the grace of God we all are, and will be Happy, safe and well, now and for all eternity!

SPRING.

The sun lights getting stronger.
As the days start to grow longer.
There is actual warmth in the sun;
With a promise of good things to come.

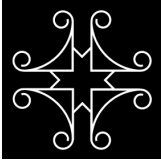

As the freezing cold frosts abate;
Birds sing merrily for a mate.
Mad March hares in the fields run.
Rabbits sit nibbling grass in the sun.

Daffodils nod happily in the breeze;
As buds burst open on the trees.
The wild bluebells begin to show.
Everything in the garden start to grow.

It is the season of joyous rebirth.
Everything springs to life on earth.
All seems possible; all that you are hoping,
When you feel the glorious start of Spring!

With apologies to all blonde people. . . .it could be anyone It is the principle that is amusing

A plane is in its way to Melbourne (Australia, not just down the road!) when a blonde in Economy Class gets up and moves to the First Class section and sits down.

The flight attendant watches her do this and asks to see her ticket. She then tells the blonde passenger that she paid for economy and that she will have to go and sit in the back.

The blonde replies 'I'm blonde, I'm beautiful, I'm going to Melbourne and I'm staying right here!'

The flight attendant goes into the cockpit and tells the pilot and co-pilot that there is some blonde sitting in First Class that belongs in Economy and won't move back to her seat.

The co-pilot goes back to the blonde and tries to explain that because she only paid for economy, she is only entitled to an economy place and she will have to leave and return to her original seat. The blonde replies, 'I'm blonde, I'm beautiful, I'm going to Melbourne and I'm staying right here!'

Exasperated the co-pilot tells the pilot that it was no use and that he should probably have the police waiting when they land to arrest this blonde woman that won't listen to reason.

The pilot says, 'You say she's blonde? I'll handle this, I'm married to a blonde, and I speak blonde!'

He goes back to the blonde, whispers in her ear and she says 'Oh, I'm sorry—I had no idea', gets up and moves back to her seat in the economy section.

The flight attendant and the co-pilot are amazed and asked him what he said to make her move back to her seat in the economy section without a fuss.

The pilot replied, 'I told her First Class isn't going to Melbourne'

Mothering Sunday Service

It's quite unusual for St James' to hold a service on Mothering Sunday, so we were very pleased to be able to make this one a special event.

The Lawrence family joined us, complete with Bonnie the Westie, to donate a beautiful new altar cloth in memory of Lois Lawrence, who was a regular member of our congregation and beloved friend to us all for many years. The altar cloth was gratefully received and blessed as part of the service.

In addition, Ted Lawrence, our retiring PCC Secretary, was presented with a gift to express our grateful appreciation of his many years dedicated service to St James'.

Many thanks to Paul for taking the service and helping us all to remember our Mothers with love on this special day.

St James' PCC Annual General Meeting

Our AGM was held after the service and was well attended despite it being Mothering Sunday. Tony reflected on the past 17 years since he took on his role and said that over the years we have worked together to make the church a happy and welcoming place. He commented that for the size of Swarkestone, he was really pleased that we have a very good congregation each month. New people are joining us which was a good sign that we are moving forward in a positive way. He felt that we were extremely fortunate to receive the legacy money from the Harpur Crewe Estate and that this was an enormous help in keeping the church well maintained. The money was being spent wisely and the addition of the new extension had brought a facility which was admired by everyone. The new work required on the Tower will be started in the near future. We had made a really good start to the year going forward and the Church was in good shape for the future. Tony thanked everyone for their help and hard work.

Once again we were unable to appoint Churchwardens, however Pauline Sims has agreed to continue in the role of Deputy Churchwarden with the support of congregation members. Laura Howarth has also agreed to continue as Church Treasurer. We offered grateful thanks to them both for their continuing loyal service to St James'. Thanks were also offered to Ted Lawrence for his many years' service as Secretary, he will however remain as a member of the PCC.

With the retirement of Ted, we are without a permanent PCC secretary, so are looking for anyone who may be interested in taking on this valuable role or that of Churchwarden. Please contact Tony for more

If you want to keep up with our news more regularly, please look for and like our Facebook page – you'll find photos and snippets about happenings at St James' and Swarkestone are added most weeks. <https://www.facebook.com/StJamesChurchSwarkestone>

I have been a volunteer there for the last few years. The most famous residents are the Beavers, 2 pairs who have both bred, the one pictured is Angus, the first Beaver in Derbyshire for over 800 years.

The other male Beaver is called Brian. Like most Brian's, he is a bit of a rebel. Last year he managed to escape through the fence, and finished up in a beer garden in Stoke. It made front page news in the local

HISTORIC CHURCH COLLECTION.

Do you realise that one of the biggest disasters at sea, of all time, occurred 112 years ago this month, on 15/4/12, and people still talk about it to this day? After hitting an iceberg the "unsinkable" ship, the Titanic, sank on it's maiden voyage, with massive loss of lives. The shocking news soon spread around the world and a Titanic Disaster Fund was set up. This was to help the survivors, the family's of the people that lost their lives, and to set up memorials for the dead. The good people at Weston church held a collection for this fund and managed to raise £2.00. This doesn't sound much but the equivalent today would be almost £300.00; so well done to the generous Weston church congregation!

CHURCH CLEANERS; HELP NEEDED PLEASE.

If you could spare a bit of your time to help clean our lovely church please contact Sue on 07804 030784.
All help gratefully received.

EARTH DAY. SATURDAY 20/4/24.

In addition to all the information in the last magazine please note that Weston church will be open from 11.00am to 3.00pm on the day. There will be light refreshments and an ongoing talk about our great church.

WESTON ON TRENT WI LATEST NEWS.

We had a very entertaining meeting on 11/3/24, when Paul Hygate, the Christian Dior of clergy fashion, told us about the various items of clothing that the clergy wear at different times of the year and what the colours and motives signify. (See following pictures) He also modelled the items and explained how clergy outfits had altered over the years. The most shocking thing we learned was how much they cost; very expensive! A cassock and the extras that come with it was about £400.00! The evening went even more merrily along due to the wine and nibbles we enjoyed!

The next meeting is on 15/4/24 and is entitled MAKE YOUR OWN KOKEDAMA. This is apparently a Japanese hanging basket! If possible please bring gardening gloves and scissors.

Does your child need help with English or Maths?

Here at Kip McGrath Derby South we provide individual small group tuition in English and Maths for children of all abilities aged 5 to 16 using only qualified and DBS checked teachers. Our Education Centre is based in Allenton and we currently offer both In Centre and Online tuition using bespoke Kip McGrath platforms. We're Ofsted registered and can accept working tax credits, universal credit, childcare vouchers and tax free childcare as payment.

Watch your child's learning and confidence grow with their own individual programme.
